DIVISION OF NURSING EDUCATION AND ALLIED HEALTH

The Division of Nursing Education and Allied Health at Roxbury Community College was established in 1987. The goal of the program is to serve the community with quality education for a rewarding career in the nursing profession. The course of study at RCC leads to an Associate in Science Degree. Graduates are eligible to take the NCLEX-RN examination to become registered nurses.

The College is committed to diversifying Boston's nursing work force by providing a well-rounded clinical and academic program. Roxbury Community College has clinical affiliations with some of the top health care facilities in the United States, including Boston Medical Center, Brigham & Women's Hospital, Massachusetts General Hospital and New England Baptist Hospital. Our nursing graduates are employed in all areas of nursing and many continue their formal education in baccalaureate institutions.

ABOUT THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Ronald Greene is currently President of the New England Regional Black Nurses Association and Chair of the Multi-Cultural Members of Partners. He was born and raised in Roxbury, MA. He received an Associate of Science Degree in Nursing from Massasoit Community College and received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing from the University of Massachusetts, Boston. His career at Massachusetts General Hospital has spanned over thirty years. He started as a staff nurse in orthopedics, later transferred to the emergency department and is now a case manager. Mr. Greene is well known and respected throughout the nursing community. A few of his many accomplishments include the Massachusetts General Hospital Partners in Excellence Award and the YMCA Black Achiever of the Year Award. Ron is active in community based organizations including the Multi-Coalition on Aging, the Mass Foundation of Nursing, and the Martin Luther King Committee. Mr. Greene's devotion to service and his achievements in nursing has made him an inspiration to many.
